

4th UKRAINE ANALYTICA SCHOOL

Odesa

August 25-26, 2023

Young experts and graduate students aged 22 to 30 y.o. are invited to participate in the Fourth School of International Analytics, organized by UA: Ukraine Analytica with the financial support of the International Renaissance Foundation and in partnership with the Representation of the Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung in Ukraine. The event will take place on August 25-26, 2023 in Odesa.

Main topics:

1. How does policy analysis differ from academic research?
2. How to prepare forecasts and scenarios?
3. Why language matters in the analysis of international relations?
4. How to draft strategies, concepts, analytical papers and other documents?

Trainers:

- Hanna Shelest, PhD, editor-in-chief of "UA: Ukraine Analytica", invited senior expert of the Center for European Policy Analysis (Washington, USA)
- Serhii Gerasimchuk, Deputy Executive Director, Foreign Policy Council "Ukrainian Prism"
- Yevgeniya Gaber, PhD, senior analyst, Center for the Study of Modern Turkey, Carleton University (Canada), senior expert of the Atlantic Council in Turkey
- Mykola Kapitonenko, PhD, associate professor of the Institute of International Relations, Kyiv National University named after Taras Shevchenko, editor of "UA: Ukraine Analytica"

In order to take part in the school please fill in the form: <https://forms.gle/h6Dk9rAY3MgfAzGE8>
Deadline - August 11, 2023

Contact person: Hanna Shelest, annashelest@hotmail.com